

Refinance Quick Reference (Free Preview)

A standard rate-and-term refi on a primary residence. Right of Rescission applies. This is one of twelve prep cards in The Mobile Notary Operating System.

Typical docs in the package

- Note (signed, not notarized)
- Deed of Trust or Mortgage (notarized, every borrower on title)
- Closing Disclosure (CD) (signed, not notarized)
- Notice of Right to Cancel (each borrower signs two copies that go back to title; each keeps two UNSIGNED copies)
- Signature/Name Affidavit (notarized)
- Occupancy Affidavit (notarized)
- Compliance Agreement (notarized)
- Errors and Omissions / Correction Agreement (signed)
- W-9 (signed)
- First Payment Letter (acknowledgment)
- Patriot Act / Borrower ID Verification (notary fills the ID section)
- Initial Escrow Disclosure (signed)

Common signing pitfalls

- Right of Rescission date math: count THREE business days starting the day AFTER signing, exclude Sundays and federal holidays. Wrong dates void the package.
- Non-borrowing spouse in a community property or dower state may still sign the Deed of Trust and Right to Cancel only.
- Name Affidavit lists every AKA the title pulled. Borrower signs each variation exactly as printed; for any AKA the signer doesn't go by, write "not known as" next to it.
- Funding is not the day of signing. Borrowers expect money the same day. Set the expectation: the Disbursement Date follows rescission, not signing.
- Right to Cancel: each borrower SIGNS two copies. Signed copies go back to the title company in the scanback or overnight package. Each borrower keeps two UNSIGNED copies of the Right to Cancel for their records.

Scanback expectations

Most title companies want full scanback same-day or within 2 hours of signing. Originals overnighted by next business day via prepaid label. Confirm scanback list before leaving the table.

Common stipulations / signer questions

- "When do I get my money?" Refer to the Loan Officer. Do not quote a specific funding date.
- "Why is my payoff higher than my balance?" Refer to the Loan Officer. Do not explain per diem or fees yourself.
- "Can I cancel?" Yes. Direct them to sign the Right to Cancel before midnight of the rescission deadline.
- Ink color: blue or black, follow lender instructions (most want blue).
- General rule: refer all funding, loan term, and payoff questions to the Loan Officer.

Do NOT notarize

- Closing Disclosure
- Note
- Notice of Right to Cancel
- First Payment Letter
- Lender / settlement agent instructions
- Any document without a notarial certificate already printed

Quick stats
